HarryGendelArchitects

Travis Dougherty has 15 years of experience with HarryGendelArchitects in Houston. He earned his Bachelor's degree in Architecture-Design Specialization and Master's degree at Texas Tech University.

During that time, he worked extensively with the Texas Tech Philosophy Department and Dr. Kenneth Ketner studying Semiotics (or "Semeiotic") and understanding how this theory of signs can better architecture.

In professional practice he has continued his pursuit in these interests (both as Project Architect and Project Designer).

HarryGendelArchitects provides services for a variety of building types including new industrial and office buildings, and their interiors.
